Concentus The Music Teachers March

Kevin Kaisershot

The American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP) in 2008, decided to thank and honor the music education profession by creating a contest to compose a new work which today carries the title Concentus - The Music Teacher's March. ASCAP announced that Kevin Kaisershot of Aurora, Illinois, won the composition contest. The work was premiered in June of 2009 by the USAF Band from Washington D.C.

When asked how he has been able to combine teaching, performing and composing, Kaisershot said, "In a lot of ways the composing was an outgrowth of the teaching because much of what I wanted to do with my students wasn't available at their level. So I just began to customize my writing to the specific need of each group or individual. Performing was something I naturally enjoyed, and it was also a way of showing my students that I practice what I preach."

Of his inspiration for the piece, Kaisershot said, "I have been very fortunate in my teaching career to be influenced by a number of outstanding teachers and colleagues. The piece reflects the energy and drive they all had and how it affected me, as well as the energy it takes to be a teacher in the first place."

Mr. Kaisershot earned a Bachelors Degree in Music Education from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. He received his Masters Degree in Trumpet Performance from Illinois State University where, in addition to playing in the Faculty Brass Quintet, he was also the Graduate Assistant and Assistant Conductor in the ISU Band Department. He has done additional postgraduate work at Northern Illinois University (Supervisory Endorsement) and Vandercook College of Music. He was a finalist for Kane County (IL) Educator of the Year where he received the Distinguished Educator Award. He also received an Award of Special Recognition from the Illinois State Board of Education as part of their "Those Who Excel" program. Recognized as one of the foremost achievers in his field, Mr. Kaisershot has been included in numerous editions of Marquis' Who's Who in America as well as many former students nominating him for Who's Who of America's Teachers.

As a conductor and clinician, Mr. Kaisershot has become well traveled throughout the midwest USA. Internationally recognized as a composer/arranger, especially of music for trumpet and brass, his music has achieved critical acclaim. His music has been performed not only in the United States, but also in several other countries including Japan, Korea, Canada, Mexico, Denmark, Switzerland, England, Norway and Germany.

He has won several awards for his band compositions, including the distinction that his march, Spectre of Fortune, was adopted by the State of Massachusetts Lions Club Organizations as their "official" march. In 2009 he won the ASCAP/MENC (now NAfME) composition competition wherein his march entry was selected as "The Music Teachers March." Since 1994 he has been almost a yearly recipient of the annual ASCAP standard awards for his contributions to the advancement of American/Educational music.

After 35+ years of successful teaching, Mr. Kaisershot retired in June of 2015 but still continues to contribute to the educational music field and on occasion will find an outlet to perform (trumpet).
